

GARDEN SPOT VILLAGE INVITES PUBLIC TO BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION PROGRAM

Two-part lecture to be held Jan. 23 and 30

NEW HOLLAND, Pa. — Jan. 2, 2012 — Garden Spot Village invites the public to a two-part lecture on “Challenges in Biblical Interpretation” presented by Dr. John Soden, a professor in the Bible & Theology Department at Lancaster Bible College (LBC).

“Dr. Soden will address what we mean when we say ‘we believe in the Bible’, using Genesis 2 and 3 as a case study,” said Chet Yoder, director of pastoral services at Garden Spot Village. “He will touch on the creation discussion as well as an understanding of what is meant by the use of ‘Adam’ in these chapters.”

The two-part program is free and open to the general public. The lectures will be offered on consecutive Mondays, Jan. 23 and 30, at 7 p.m. in the chapel in the chapel at Garden Spot Village, 433 S. Kinzer Ave.

Garden Spot Village is home to all faiths and backgrounds. It is affiliated with the Lancaster Mennonite Conference of the Mennonite Church, the Atlantic Coast Conference of the Mennonite Church USA and Mennonite Health Services. The community’s mission is “to enrich the lives of older adults as an expression of Christ’s love.” For more information, visit www.gardenspotvillage.org.
